UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

O R D E R

10 Civ. 9338 (NRB)

We have received the parties' letters of July 13, 2012, July 16, 2012, July 31, 2012, August 8, 2012, August 13, 2012, and August 21, 2012 on the subject of depositions, addressing particularly who can be deposed and the order of deposition as well as the content thereof and finally the issue of who other than the parties, their counsel, the witnesses themselves, and a reporter may be present for the depositions. Having considered these letters, we make the following rulings:

1. Plaintiff may only depose the following witnesses: Lawrence Jacobs, Robert Jones, Dr. Edward Fruitman, and Charmaine Barrett.

2. As to Charmaine Barrett, plaintiff may only question her regarding her knowledge about the sexual harassment by Robert Jones that plaintiff allegedly experienced from 2004 onwards.

3. The deposition of plaintiff will precede the deposition of any other witness.

4. No person other than the parties, their counsel, the witnesses themselves, and a reporter may be present in the immediate room in which any depositions occur.

Dated: New York, New York
August 22, 2012
